DUTIES:

This is a Supervisory Border Patrol Agent (Resident SBPA) - Resident Location.

As a first-line Supervisory Border Patrol Agent you will serve as a primary law enforcement officer (under 5 U.S.C. 8331 (6C) and 8412 (d)) and be responsible for:

- Directing assignments of subordinate Border Patrol Agents, specialized units, and station operations.
- Directing activities aimed at preventing the illegal entry of aliens into the United States by land, water, or air.
- Seeking out and apprehending smugglers or aliens who are illegally in the United States.
- Enforcing the criminal provisions of the Immigration and Nationality laws.

- All normal functions involved in supervising personnel, including leave approval, resolving disciplinary problems, and preparing annual performance appraisals.

The duties described above are the general duties of a first-line Supervisory Border Patrol Agent. Your duties may be more specific depending on the position you apply to and for which you are selected.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED:Back to top \(Top of Page\)

Basic Qualification Requirements: The basic qualification requirements include experience in law enforcement or other responsible work that demonstrates the ability to make arrests and exercise sound judgment in the use of firearms; to deal effectively with individuals or persons in a courteous, tactful manner; and to analyze information rapidly and make prompt decisions.

AND

GS-13: You qualify at the GS-13 level if you meet the basic qualification requirements and possess one year of specialized experience including interpreting and enforcing immigration or comparable laws, rules, and regulations. This also includes gathering and analyzing intelligence from a variety of sources; developing case work pertaining to criminal prosecutions and investigations; identifying and investigating smuggling operations; devising and recommending solutions to operational problems, and apprising management of identified deficiencies and solutions; and ensuring compliance with enforcement and operational practices.

Language Requirement: Must be proficient in the Spanish language. (i.e., able to speak and read in Spanish).

You must:

- Meet all qualification requirements, subject to verification at any stage of the application process; and
- Meet all applicable Time in Grade requirements (current Federal employees must have served 52 weeks at the next lower grade or equivalent grade band in the Federal service) by Monday, September 09, 2013.

This is a non-bargaining unit status position.

Resident SBPA Information: Agents selected for the position will be expected to reside within 50 miles of the Resident Location unless otherwise approved by the Chief Patrol Agent. Resident Agents will be assigned a government owned vehicle (GOV) to respond from his/her resident post and will be subject to callouts during non-working hours.

Employment Agreement: If you are selected and are approved to receive a fully funded move you will be required to sign an employment agreement to remain at that duty location for at least one year or repay the funds. Some exceptions apply such as receiving a promotion or involuntary separation.

Law Enforcement Retirement: This position meets the eligibility criteria for law enforcement retirement under both the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) and the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS) under Title 5 U.S.C. 8336(c) or Title 5 U.S.C. 8412(d). For more information on required years of service and retirement age click on this link: http://cbpnet/xp/cbpnet/hrm/hr_prof/staffing/maximum_age.xml (http://cbpnet/xp/cbpnet/hrm/hr_prof/staffing/maximum_age.xml)

For further information on when an employee continues or discontinues coverage under the special retirement system for law enforcement officers, please see the CSRS and FERS handbook, Chapter 46, pages 12-13. <https://www.opm.gov/asd/hod/pdf/C046.pdf> (<https://www.opm.gov/asd/hod/pdf/C046.pdf>).

Age Requirement: Provisions of Public Law 93- 350 and 100-238 allow the imposition of a maximum age for initial appointment to a Supervisory Border Patrol Agent position with the Department of Homeland Security. In accordance with Department of Homeland Security Management Directive 251-03, the "day before an individual's 37th birthday" is the maximum age for original appointment to a position as a law enforcement officer within DHS. Consequently, candidates must be referred for selection before reaching their 37th birthday. Creditable service covered by Title 5 U.S.C. 8336(c), Title 5 U.S.C. 8412(d), or creditable service on or after July 6, 2008 covered by Public Law 110-161 may be applied toward the maximum age requirement.

This age restriction may not apply if you are currently serving in a federal civilian (not military) law enforcement position covered by Title 5 U.S.C. 8336(c) or Title 5 U.S.C. 8412 (d).

Veterans' Preference Eligibility - To ensure compliance with statutes pertaining to the appointment of preference eligible veterans as determined by the Merit Systems Protection Board in its recent decision Isabella v. Dept of State, the maximum age for original appointment articulated above shall not apply to the hiring of individuals entitled to veterans' preference eligibility under 5 U.S.C. § 3312.

Firearms Requirement: You will be required to carry a firearm while performing duties of this position. Maintaining firearm proficiency is also mandatory. Any person who has been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence cannot lawfully possess a firearm or ammunition (Title 18, U.S.C. Section 922 (g) (9)). Candidates under consideration will be required to certify whether they have ever been convicted of such an offense. False or fraudulent information provided by candidates is criminally punishable by fine or imprisonment.

Administratively Uncontrollable Overtime (AUO): You may be required to work on an unscheduled basis in excess of the 40-hour work week. You must be readily accessible to perform this unscheduled work. You may receive extra compensation in the form of Administratively Uncontrollable Overtime.

Travel: Overnight travel may be required on a regular and recurring basis.

Motor Vehicle Operation: You must possess a valid automobile driver's license at the time of appointment.

Overtime and Shift Work: This position requires regular and recurring overtime and shift work.

Uniforms: This position requires you to wear an officially-approved uniform while in duty status.

HOW YOU WILL BE EVALUATED:

Qualified U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) candidates will be ranked on the basis of the scores received on your Border Patrol Promotional Assessment.

Competitive applicants must have a valid test score when the announcement opens, or we cannot consider you for this position. Alternate Staffing (Non-Competitive)

Candidates need not have a current, valid test score. Alternate Staffing (Non-Competitive) candidates include applicants who have permanently held a position at the highest grade announced or higher.

Knowledge, Skills, Abilities and Other Characteristics (KSAOs):

Candidates who meet the minimum qualification requirements are required to possess certain Knowledge, Skills, Abilities, or Other Characteristics (KSAOs) to successfully perform the functions of this position. Candidates will be asked to demonstrate their attainment of these KSAOs in their resume.

The KSAOs are:

- Knowledge of Immigration and Nationality laws
- Knowledge of proper law enforcement methods

- Skill in analyzing disparate facts, events, and other types of intelligence material
- Skill in using a variety of automated information systems to gather information for intelligence, enforcement, and prosecutions, and to facilitate decision making

If you are best qualified, you may be referred to the hiring manager for consideration and may be called for an interview. To preview the job questionnaire, see View Occupational Questionnaire (<https://ApplicationManager.gov/Questionnaire.aspx?ID=4778034&PreviewType=Questionnaire>).

Agency Career Transition Assistance Program (CTAP) eligibility: If you have never worked for the federal government, you are not CTAP eligible. Information about CTAP eligibility is on the OPM's Career Transition Resources website at: http://www.opm.gov/Reduction_In_Force/employee_resources/ctap/Employee-Guideline_CTAP.asp#3a (http://www.opm.gov/Reduction_In_Force/employee_resources/ctap/Employee-Guideline_CTAP.asp#3a). To be considered well qualified under CTAP, you must be rated at a minimum score of 85 for this position. In addition, you must submit the supporting documents listed in the "Required Documents" section of this announcement.

BENEFITS:

Back to top \(TopofPage\)

DHS offers competitive starting salaries and an attractive benefits package, including: health insurance, Thrift Savings Plan (similar to a 401(k)), Flexible Spending Account, retirement plan, life and long-term care insurance, Employee Assistance Program, personal leave days and paid federal holidays. Other benefits may include: flexible work schedules, telework, tuition reimbursement, transportation subsidies, uniform allowance, health and wellness programs, and fitness centers. DHS is committed to employee development and offers a variety of employee training and development opportunities. For more information, please go to www.dhs.gov/careers (<http://www.dhs.gov/careers>) and select "Benefits".

Relocation Expenses: This is a fully funded move coordinated by a relocation company (RARS/REMAX). You will not receive a lump sum payment for this move. To compare cost of living data, calculate mortgage scenarios, or gather information on communities and school districts, please visit the website: <http://www.relocationessentials.com/aff/lifecare/tools/salary/col.aspx> (<http://www.relocationessentials.com/aff/lifecare/tools/salary/col.aspx>)

Reporting Time: If you do not own a residence, you will have 45 calendar days from the date of formal acceptance to report to your new duty location. If you own a residence, you will have up to 90 calendar days from the date of formal acceptance to report to your new duty location. On a case-by-case basis when justified circumstances are articulated by the agent, Sector Chiefs may grant extensions to these time lines.

Change in Residence: In order to receive the fully funded move, agents must change residence from which they normally commute to work.

Official Residence: The determination on whether you will qualify for a fully funded move will be made based on your official residence. Agents must physically change their residence from which they normally commute to and from work to receive a fully funded move. Official residence is defined as the residence address listed with the National Finance Center (NFC). It is the agent's responsibility to ensure that his/her official residence is correctly annotated in the NFC and updated as necessary.

Note: For the purpose of determining eligibility for the the fully funded move, agents can not have a P.O. Box listed as their address in NFC. Agents need to go into NFC and update their residence address with the physical residence they commute to and from work. This must be completed prior to the closing date of the announcement.

The web address for the NFC Employee Personal Page is <https://www.nfc.usda.gov/personal/index.aspx> (<https://www.nfc.usda.gov/personal/index.aspx>)

In order to receive the fully funded move, Agents must meet the "distance test".

Distance Test: Effective August 2011, cost transfers are subject to the "distance test". The "distance test" is met when the new official station is at least 50 miles further from the employee's current residence than the old official station is from the same residence. For example, if the old official station is 15 miles from the current residence, then the new official station must be at least 65 miles from that same residence in order to receive relocation expenses for residence transactions. The distance test does not take into consideration the location of a new residence.

For information on the new Federal Travel Regulation please visit:

<http://www.gsa.gov/portal/ext/public/site/FTR/file/Chapter302p002.html/category/21869/#wp1119542> (<http://www.gsa.gov/portal/ext/public/site/FTR/file/Chapter302p002.html/category/21869/#wp1119542>)

Note: Station address is the physical address of the station not the official mailing address.

Agents relocating will receive the following days of administrative leave:

- 5 days for a house hunting trip (granted by the sending sector): AND
- One-person households - three days for packing (granted by the sending sector) and three days for unpacking (granted by the receiving sector), OR
- Multiple person households - five days for packing (granted by the sending sector) and five days for unpacking (granted by the receiving sector).

En Route Travel: En route travel is official duty time. Travel time for moving is based on current Federal Travel Regulation (FTR) 302-4.400. Reasonable travel time for moving is a minimum driving distance that may be more than, but not less than, an average of 300 miles per calendar day. Note: Travel days are considered eight hours for compensation purposes and can not include AUO or overtime hours.

Ineligibility to Apply for another Relocation: Agents relocating through the VRP shall be ineligible to apply for another voluntary relocation for two years. Any other voluntary relocation program such as the Relocation Opportunity Bulletin (ROB) shall be ineligible to apply for another voluntary relocation for one year.

Note: This provision only applies to funded relocations. Agents who do not receive a fully funded move remain eligible to apply for funded relocation opportunities.

OTHER INFORMATION:

Background Investigation: To ensure the accomplishment of our mission, CBP requires every employee to be reliable and trustworthy. To meet those standards, selected applicants may be required to undergo, and must successfully pass, a background investigation for placement into this position. This may include a review of financial issues and disclosure regarding criminal offenses and illegal use or possession of drugs. Entry into this position may require that you successfully pass a polygraph examination. For more information, please see: http://www.cbp.gov/xp/cgov/careers/apply/mandatory_back_invest.xml (http://www.cbp.gov/xp/cgov/careers/apply/mandatory_back_invest.xml).

Supervisory Probationary Period: You may be required to serve an 18 month probationary period upon appointment and complete a supervisory training course within 12 months of assignment.
